VENUE

Krudttønden, Serridslevvej 2, 2100 København Ø (www.krudttonden.dk)

The CTC proudly presents its sixth annual British Pantomime, Pantostein. This frighteningly funny show is full of mad scientists, monsters and vampires. But not to worry – this cast of characters is more silly than scary!

Follow Boris and Bertha, two paranormal investigators, as they encounter supernatural forces in Cemetaria, a mountain top village deep in the heart of Transylvania. The world's first mad scientist competition is currently underway and the townsfolk are preparing for this explosive event. Dr Frank N Stein is looking to scoop up the top prize with his famous creation but Dracula and his Bride have other plans.

All the traditional elements of a Pantomime are here - songs, jokes, cross-dressing and even a cameo from Daisy the Cow!

Are you coming to see our show? Oh, yes you are!

TRANSPORT

There is limited street parking near the venue, although there is underground parking for 130 cars beside the theatre, accessible from the corner of Serridslevvej and Gunnar Nu Hansens Plads. Be aware, however, that there can be great demand for parking in connection with events in nearby Fælledparken or the National Stadium (Parken). We would therefore recommend taking public transport. The nearest S-train station is Nordhavn. The venue can easily be reached by buses 1A, 14, 40 and 401.

COPENHAGEN THEATRE CIRCLE

This English-speaking group of theatre enthusiasts has been providing Copenhagen audiences with high-quality drama in English since 1968. It presents three stage productions for the general public each year and hosts play-readings, Open Stage events, and all manner of other theatre and acting-related events throughout the season.
